

It's...The Talk of the Town!

May 2023

*"The legacy of heroes — the memory of a great name, and the inheritance of a great example."
-Benjamin Disraeli*

Hopping Good Time!

The annual Easter Egg Hunt was a success! Despite a surprise cold snap, parents and their little ones braved the cold to search for golden eggs.

A very special 'thank you' to the Pembroke Fire and Police Departments and City Hall Employees for pulling this event off flawlessly.

Big Check Ceremony

Every May, the Fox Theater Institute celebrates National Historic Preservation Month by presenting Big Checks to performing arts venues. The goal is to bring national attention to preservation efforts of historic buildings. May 16th, the Fox Institute will stop in Pembroke to present a check to the TOS Theater!

Congratulations!

Congratulations are in order! Our very own Fire Chief, Peter Waters, received his level one Code Enforcement Certification just a few weeks ago. Chief Waters is a valued asset to the city and does what he can to keep our little city safe and up to code. Congratulations again, Chief!

To the Rescue!

Are you or someone you know a stronger swimmer that likes to help others? The City of Pembroke is looking for a pool manager and lifeguards for the city pool this summer! Applications are available at city hall, or online at www.pembrokega.net. Must be 15 or older to apply!
